Buddhism: A Very Short Introduction - Very Short Introductions

a very good short introduction to a very beautiful and profound system of thought and religion. Damien Keon's Very Short Introduction to Buddhism is a wonderful book written in a well-structured way, to cover all the historic, geographic, as well as the religious, philosophical, ethical and social aspects of the Buddhist religion/philosophy.

Buddhism: A Very Short Introduction by Damien Keown

The introduction is short but it is very comprehensive. I enjoyed in particular the exposition on Manayama Buddhism and the clear presentation of the concept of Boddhisattva. I would have liked to have more deep analysis of the concept of no self and of dependent origination but the space is very short. A good introduction.

'Buddhism and elephants' asks: Is Buddhism a religion? Buddhism is large and complex, and does not fit well into traditional Western conceptions of religion. However, Buddhism does adhere to Ninian Smart's seven dimensions of religion. It has a diverse ritual and practical life, and the experience and compassion of the Buddha is the bedrock of Buddhist traditions.
