Living With the Dead is funny, exciting and quite touching in its "You Are There" style, especially as Garcia's (and Scully's) progressive heroin addiction kills the hope and optimism the Dead symbolized when they began. If you loved the Dead and Garcia, and need a solid sense of their history, how they did what they did, and why it fell apart, Scully's eloquent and loving memoir is essential reading.

Living with the Dead Page 20 . In the meantime, he'd come up with a version of events that put him in a better light. No mysterious couple. Certainly no walking into their trap. And there'd been two - no, maybe four - cops searching the apartment. He'd waited for hours, but they hadn't left. Adele couldn't blame him for that... he hoped. HOPE . Hope called Robyn from the car. Robyn sounded ...

Living with the dead in Indonesia - BBC News

This book covers what made the Dead amazing, a LOT about the drugs and dirt, but in an honest and non exploitative way. Probably the best book about how pervasive cocaine and heroin were among the rock stars of the 70s, and about how the Dead became a massive burden on Jerry in some ways.
