Real Italian clothing is not about the trendy fashion houses and their designers , but these maestro's in various crafts. The photographs shows the clothing/shoes/etc. very well, and in large format, and the text is well written. This was quite an undertaking to research all of these people, and Hugo Jacomet pulled it off very well. I expect that a 2nd Italian version will come out again as there are still so many fine craftsmen who have not been introduced.
