The Transparency Society By Byung

Technology creates the illusion of total containment and the constant monitoring of information, but what we lack is adequate interpretation of the information. In this manifesto, Byung-Chul Han denounces transparency as a false ideal, the strongest and most pernicious of our contemporary mythologies.

Those wanting to expand their understanding of the not so convenient 'benefits' of contemporary life (transparency, intimacy, acceleration...) will find this work very useful. I strongly advise to read The Burnout Society first, it will help the reader to better grasp some of this philosopher's criticism.
